

Welcome to the 2009 WIAC Cross Country Championships!

The University of Wisconsin-Whitewater is proud to be the host of the 2009 Cross Country Championships for the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. Our students, student-athletes, faculty and staff are excited to present to you a high-quality championship experience.

This event will showcase the best Division III student-athletes in the country on one of the most challenging, on-campus courses in the nation. Our team's are ready for top-notch performances and this event promises to be a unique experience for all involved.

Congratulations to each of the competitors! We wish you the best and hope you have an enjoyable time on our campus.

Respectfully,
